Description of the Incident

Describe in your own words how you have been victimized.

On 2/8/2014 I was contacted at 17:10 by an individual named "Luis" telling me that my mother in Puerto Rico had been witness to a murder and when his crew left the scene they were intercepted by Anasco PR police and wanted to be reimbursed for their loss. He continued on to say a cop that works for them named my mother as the individual who contacted the police and that is how he obtained her number. He instructed me to send via western union money or he'd signal men on stand by outside her home in Anasco P.R. to shoot and kill her. So I agreed to pay the money and I could hear an individual screaming out "get out of there, he's paying". At that moment I had my wife call on her cell phone to my mother to see if she was ok and if she had witnessed a murder. She was fine and said she had not witnessed a murder. My wife explained to her to contact the police and explain what was going on. Meanwhile my brother called on my other line and I was able to speak to him and he too had been contacted seconds before me. His son in law happens to have a brother in Puerto Rico whom is a cop and told him this is a scam going on. Then my 2 sisters called in a panic that they too were contacted and what were we all going to do. These individuals have called 7x's and keep calling my siblings as well. After speaking to my mother she stated someone contacted her by the name of Luis, saying they were a long lost friend of ours and they wanted to invite us to a wedding and this is how the individuals convinced my mother to provide our phone numbers. I've contacted my local police, Anasco Puerto Rico police and my siblings have contacted their local police in 3 different towns as well. Please investigate these individuals. I only have a phone number [REDACTED] that was used to call me.

Description of the Incident

Describe in your own words how you have been victimized.

Trulia, a real estate web site, posted an apartment for rent in San Francisco and provided an agent's name and telephone number. We talked via email to the agent and provided her basic information (name, email address). Next, I received an email asking for particulars on who we were, ability to pay, previous history, etc. Next email said we had been approved and that we needed to make a payment in order to receive a key for inspection of the unit. Unit was living abroad (London) but by making a payment through Western Union we could look at the apartment and make a decision in 48 hours. Description of making the escrow payment through Realtors.com was extremely sketchy. I refused.

Description of the Incident

Describe in your own words how you have been victimized.

2/8/2014 my grandson wanted to use the computer and said he had to enter a password, which he did, but there were still things on the computer he knew nothing about: command prompt, WIN32.DLL corrupted and windows would be shutting down, WIN32.DLL corrupted please contact service department at 646-396-7846. I called the # and an Indian man answered Microsoft, how may I help you? I explained the situation and gave him permission to remotely control my computer. He explained to me what had to be done, went to a Microsoft website, had me choose a package, and then went to Western Union online so I could transfer the money. Western Union must have thought something was going on because they would not process my credit or debit card. I was upset thinking about everything on my computer I would loose, he asked if I could do a check and I agreed. I put my info in and he said we were done and he'd be working on the computer for the next hour or two. A couple hours later I went to check on the process and there was a sticky note: done for today, be back tomorrow. I left everything alone and went to bed leaving the computer on. This morning when I went in to check I noticed the only thing on the desktop that showed it was corrupted was Turbo Tax, I had just finished doing mine and my husbands and my family's income tax so I checked my documents and this years tax returns are corrupted and cannot be opened which means if this man has our returns he has all of our personal information. I immediately shut the computer down and call the FBI office in Saginaw. The agent gave me instructions on what to do. I booted up the laptop and checked my e-mail, there are 3 from Western Union, Money Transfer Control Number: [REDACTED] and the last one sent let me know that they couldn't process the request for the money transfer.

ONGOING ABOUT TO HAPPEN Request advisement

Please be aware that I will expect to be in contact with someone tomorrow, Feb. 10th, who will be giving me final instructions on what I will need to do to accept a large transfer of money ( 2.5 million). As I would expect they will insist that I make payment to cover the cost(s) of that transaction, and have also suggested that it might be easiest just to have it deposited into my personal account. I have demonstrated a skepticism and reluctance to make any payments through out, and would need to again in order to remain consistent to the dialogue going forward.

I NEED SOME GUIDANCE as to what you ( IC3 - FBI ) might need from me in this situation as to how to play out this what I believe to be their final gambit with me.

Background:

Initially it was a London based customs agent needing 7,000 to pay all taxes and duties on a shipment of 70K value in African frames and art work. I flatly told [redacted] that that wouldn't be possible and wouldn't happen.

It eventually became a much smaller shipment. The agent, now identified as [redacted] whom she said she'd first met in London and had recently moved with his family back to Nigeria, had found some dresses for her and only needed monies for custom duty / taxes / shipping costs for the items to be shipped from / imported from Lagos, Nigeria. With her birthday coming up could I assist her in obtaining them.

b7C

At this point, if not before, I was warning her, [redacted] about Nigerian scams and was she aware and at all concerned about being victimized. She insisted that she trusted her agent explicitly, and that if I trusted her.....

Feb. 03, 2014

Western Union: Tracking # [redacted] 310.50 Made out to [redacted] Lagos, Nigeria

Feb. 06, 2014- late morning, I was told that the individual, [redacted] Lagos, Nigeria 23401, the business agent handling her packages, was killed in a traffic accident on the way to deliver her packages to the airport and that the packages had been destroyed as well. I was told we'd need to start the whole process and repay all monies again and should consider making a contribution to the family of the deceased as well.

b6

Feb. 06, 2014- afternoon - early evening, already suspicious if a little too late, I made it clear that I'd need some independent verification of these facts if there were going to be any additional transfers. I sent an eMail to LagosACS@state.gov (copy available) asking if they could verify with Lagos authorities the details of the accident and of Mr. [redacted]'s death. No reply has been received back as of 12:00 Feb. 09. I have repeated resisted any and all requests to make any additional transfers.

Feb. 08 2014 09:00 - I believe their last big gambit started to unfold. I was told she [redacted] has a large inheritance (2.5 million) and that because of the way her late father had set up the security (Trust ?) for her, but that it would be dispersed to her husband or boyfriend/fiancé.

Feb. 08 2014 - ASAP - CALLED THE FBI gave them the quick sketch - and they sent me here to file a report.

I expect the other shoe will drop this coming tomorrow, Monday Feb. 10th, when I once again expect to be in contact with the "Security Company" in Rhode Island to be given instructions as to how the money is to be transferred to me.

If this follows the convention I've seen in other scam scenarios, wouldn't this be when they'll want some sort of payment for servicing the transfer ? They have flippantly suggested that any bank account I already had would suffice as the receptor of the transfer.

Description of the Incident

Describe in your own words how you have been victimized.

On 11/29/13 I received a call from a man identifying himself as a representative with Microsoft. There is an updated windows software security program. I purchased the program for 259.99 for 2 years. I paid with my debit/Visa card. On 2/6/14 I received a call from a man stating I would be getting a refund as I overpaid. I gave him my information debit and address and he said I would be receiving my refund via Western Union. My wife checked our account and there were two pending withdrawals for 312.00 each. We immediately emailed our bank that these transactions were not authorized. I went to the bank the next morning and was informed that nothing could be done as the transaction was not completed, I was to return once the transaction was completed. I contacted Western Union Saturday morning. They informed me it was too late as the money was already picked up by [REDACTED] They flagged my account and said to report this to you. They said this scam has been going on for a while. My debit card has been cancelled, The man called again last evening and when I said you stole from my account he hung up, I will go to the bank Monday to complete the papers to dispute charges per the banks instructions.

Description of the Incident

Describe in your own words how you have been victimized.

[redacted] represented himself as a "match" potential. I have copies of his plane ticket here with identifying information and also the name of another woman he has victimized. He of course had to go to Nigeria before he came here and then at the last minute needed money. I actually tried to wire 4000 to him in two separate Western Union payments and they wouldn't let it go through (thankfully). He then wanted me to wire money to the account of [redacted] who lives in Amherst NH which I did not do- told him that smelled like "money laundering" and I wanted nothing to do with it. That was yesterday and of course I haven't heard anything from him. I contacted [redacted] through phone number listed on internet and she verified that he was the same person as I had been dealing with except he had hacked her computer and taken all of her money. He has Nigerian cell phone at the moment and that number is [redacted]. Up until yesterday I spoke to him on the number several times. I have contact information for [redacted] the email he sent me with her routing/banking info and the documentation from Western Union. He asked me to send two different wires to two different men " [redacted]" and " [redacted]". I have his various emails to me that I would be happy to print off and provide and the original match.com contact. I am happy to help in any way I can. I am a psychologist and have worked a fair amount in forensics (no kidding even I was scammed - cripes). Office [redacted] Cell [redacted]. [redacted] I would be happy to make time to be interviewed. These guys are BAD BAD news.

Description of the Incident

Describe in your own words how you have been victimized.

I currently do not have the specific dates and numbers of the transactions so I hope I can submit them later. This all started last September and he supposedly could not come to meet me because he had to go to London for his job. Then while in London he wanted to get out of there and come home but he needed 2000 to get home and that was in November at 2013. Then when he did not show up after I sent the money a couple weeks later he contacted me and said he had a heart attack and had been in the hospital in a coma. And that he needed 2000 again to pay the hospital so he could get home he already had the ticket but he just had to get out of the hospital and this was just before Christmas and I wanted him to be here for Christmas because I thought he was real. So I sent him another 2000. Then I did not hear from anybody again until mid-January. I got an email from a supposedly friend called [REDACTED] at [REDACTED]. The email said his grandmother had died and I shot costing to go into another heart attack. And he had been in a coma and then Alberta Canada hospital. And of course he needs money to get out of the hospital from me and I told them no. I be leave the transactions the first one was in October and the second one in November 2013. They were both sent via Western Union to a person in Nigeria who was supposed to give him the money because he could not get it in London. He even sent me a check supposedly from a London bank that was his wages and that was supposed to see meant our relationship and when he got here he would cash the check and give me my money back. They are asking for the check back but I am keeping it as evidence has his name on it and the name of the bank I do not know if I kept the envelope. Please let me know how I need to submit the receipts for Western Union and this probably phony check.

Description of the Incident

b6

Describe in your own words how you have been victimized.

On March 12, 2013, I was contacted via phone by a person named David who said he represented Microsoft Windows division and had $534.00 to return to me as a result of settlement of a Microsoft suit against Online PC Care for their failure to deliver on promised support. As I had subscribed to PC Care and found their services lacking, this made sense to me. Money was to be sent by electronic deposit to my Wells Fargo checking account. I gave him the necessary information, but the deposit did not happen, and the call ended. I then placed a call to the 800 number David had used [REDACTED] and received a recorded message saying "the call cannot be completed as dialed."

On March 14, I called Wells Fargo to report suspected fraud in my account, and was given new checking, debit and Visa account numbers (I have a Visa account connected to my Wells Fargo account).

On March 19, David called again, this time giving me his ID number and once again saying he represented Microsoft Windows. He asserted that he was under pressure to get the money to me and gave another 800 number: [REDACTED]. He asked for my social security number in order to send a check from Western Union, through the US Mail, to be received within 2 business days. The amount was not $599.00 for all the trouble that had been caused me thus far. With reservations, I gave my social security number to him.

No check arrived.

On April 1, 2013, "Mr. [REDACTED]" called, saying he was an accountant in the banking area (of Microsoft, was the implication), apologizing for the inconvenience to me thus far, and that David would be calling soon to set up payment through Western Union.

Later that day I received a call from [REDACTED] Fraud Department at Western Union, saying there appears to be fraud in my account, with $2500.00 set to be taken from my checking account and sent to India through WU. I assured him I had no intention of sending money to India, and he opened a case number in my name. [REDACTED]

At 5:29 p.m., I received another call from one " [REDACTED]" who said that he had received a call from my bank, saying that there was suspicious activity. I said he is with Merchant Account Processing Co., a division of the Federal Trade Commission, and his job is to catch scammers. Gave his email as [REDACTED]. I believed him, and we began to work online together through Join Me. He said he would call WU and get back to me. At 6:45 p.m., [REDACTED] called back, saying that $2500.00 had been charged to my Visa for transfer to The WF checking account, and recommended I call WF for a new debit number and new Visa number, and dispute the $2500.00 charge to Visa. [REDACTED] established a PayPal account for me at 7:37 p.m. and recommended I always use PayPal for online purchases, since "it is so secure."

I called Wells Fargo Fraud dept and received Reference #: [REDACTED]

I called Visa credit card services and received Case #: [REDACTED] associated with the $2500.00 charged to Visa account, and an additional $2009.00 that was a withdrawal from checking to WU.

I worked with [REDACTED] then [REDACTED] until December, when I finally accepted that these were scammers, misrepresenting themselves as working for the Federal Trade Commission.

All my notes have been written and are available. I will gladly send to you upon request. It will take too long to transcribe them here.

Supplemental Information

----- 04/03/2014 16:50:48 -----

I have received three messages from people I believe are the scammers with whom I was in contact March - December, 2013.

These messages began March 30, with a message supposedly from DHL Co, and have continued April 2, with the notice that I have "won" L1,500,000 Great British Pounds, and April 3 with a message from Mr. [REDACTED] saying that I am to contact Western Union to receive 5000.00 daily. I will gladly send these emails to you directly, if you will send the email address to which I should do so. Further, I am receiving phone calls daily, at varying times of the day, showing no name or phone number, or a number such as the following:

V04030805300070 000-000-0000 or, yesterday, from a local number: [REDACTED] which I believe to be from a bank of phone numbers used by the scammers.

I send this to you to help in your investigation on this matter. Please reply to let me know you have received this information.

Description of the Incident

Describe in your own words how you have been victimized.

I get 4 - 6 calls per day from a company that claims to be Mega Millions and they are indicating that I need to go to the nearest Walmart, CVS or Walgreens to send them a money through Western Union in order to get my prize. They have indicated that I won a Mercedes and that they are bringing it to me and they'll be at my house (but oddly they never show). I have asked them to stop calling but they continue to call 4 to 6 times a day. I look out my window to make sure they aren't at my house. They indicated I filled out something via USPS and sent it in and I have won between 2M and 6M dollars but I need to send in some sort of fee to get it. I've repeated to them to stop calling me but the harassing phone calls continue.

Description of the Incident

Describe in your own words how you have been victimized.

My name is [REDACTED] I live at [REDACTED] Marshalltown Iowa 50158 my phone number is [REDACTED] b6 b7c

I was recently contacted by phone by a guy claiming to be from a company I do business with offering to send me a refund.

He said that they were changing the way they billed for services and refunding my yearly service fees and would put the money in my checking account with a Western Union transfer and like a dummy I gave him my information which surprise the transfer would not go through so I was then told his supervisor would call me back to make some other arrangement but if I didn't get a call to call back and he gave me his phone number and name.

I waited a couple days and nothing happened no call back so I called his number and he actually answered and like a dummy I let him try the Western Union transfer again with the same result so I was told I would just have to wait for the supervisors call that they were doing a lot of refunds so it might take a day or two. I waited a couple more days.

I had checked my checking account after the first call no action.

After waiting the second say or two wait I checked again still no action.

Then a couple more days and I checked again and this time there were two Western Union transfers out of my checking for a total of 712.

I was given a series off numbers to write down which I did I will list all of these numbers below I'm pretty sure they are all bogus.

I wanted to report this so that no one else gets caught like me when you are retired 700 is a lot of money. Here are all the numbers he had me record.

RECEIVED PHONE CALL ON 2/10/14 FROM PERSON WHO ASKED "DO YOU KNOW WHO THIS IS? IT SOUNDED LIKE MY GRANDSON [REDACTED] OF DALLAS, TX SO I SAID "MY GRANDSON". HE SAID HE WAS IN LIMA WITH HIS FRIEND. THEN HE SAID HE WAS IN TROUBLE BECAUSE HE HAD BEEN ARRESTED WITH HIS FRIEND WHILE RIDING IN A SPEEDING TAXI. THE POLICE STOPPED THEM AND SEARCHED THE CAR AND FOUND TWO KILOS OF COCAINE IN THE TRUNK. THE CALLER BEGGED ME NOT TO TELL HIS MOTHER UNTIL HE WAS CLEARED OF THE CHARGES AND SAID HE WAS OK AND AT THE US EMBASSY IN PERU. HE BEGGED ME TO HELP HIM FINANCIALLY AND SEND HIM MONEY. I SAID I WOULD AND THEN HE TOLD ME TO TALK SARGEANT [REDACTED] WHO WOULD LAY OUT THE DETAILS OF THE SITUATION. HE ALSO SAID HE HAD A RETURN TICKET FOR THE END OF THE WEEK. ALL FUTURE DISCUSSIONS WERE WITH SARGEANT [REDACTED] HE TOLD ME THAT THE EMBASSY HAD DRUG TESTED THE TWO BOYS AND THEY WERE CLEAN OF NARCOTICS. HE THEN TOLD ME THEY WERE BEING HELD AT THE US EMBASSY FOR WHICH HE WORKED. HE EXPLAINED THAT THE TRIAL DATE WOULD PROHIBIT HIM LEAVING THIS WEEK. IF I WOULD SEND HIM $1420.00 HE COULD GET A SPECIAL HEARING FOR HIM YESTERDAY. HE WOULD HAVE A PERUVIAN PUBLIC DEFENDER AND HE WAS SURE HE WOULD BE CLEARED OF ALL CHARGES DUE TO THE DRUG TEST RESULTS. HE ASKED THAT I SEND THE $1420 BY WESTERN UNION ATTENTION [REDACTED] MY GRANDSON I SAID I WOULD AND SENT THE MONEY IN ABOUT FIFTEEN MINUTES. THE SECOND CALL I GOT WAS FROM [REDACTED] SAYING THAT [REDACTED] MET WITH THE PUBLIC DEFENDER AND WAS VERY UNCOMFORTABLE WITH HER BECAUSE SHE SAID SHE COULDN'T GUARANTEE HE WOULD NOT HAVE A RECORD. [REDACTED] SAID HE KNEW A US ATTORNEY NAMED [REDACTED] WHO WORKED HALF OF THE TIME IN LIMA WHO WOULD TAKE THE CASE FOR $170.00 PER HOUR BUT I WOULD HAVE TO SEND A $1000.00 RETAINER BY WESTERN UNION. I AGREED AND SENT THE MONEY WITHIN THIRTY MINUTES ATT: [REDACTED] HE TOLD ME THE $1400.00 WOULD BE REFUNDED WHEN HE WAS CLEARED AND THE CONTINGENCY FEE WOULD BE REFUNDED DEPENDING HOW MANY HOURS HE WORKED. THE THIRD CALL WAS FROM SARGEANT [REDACTED] SAYING [REDACTED] WAS CLEARED OF ALL CHARGES AND ANY RECORDS OF HIS ARREST WOULD BE ERASED. I WOULD RECEIVE A CERTIFIED CHECK FOR THE $1420 AND ANOTHER CHECK FROM THE ATTORNEY FOR $1000.00 MINUS $170.00 FOR ONE HOUR WORKED. HE SAID [REDACTED] WOULD BE RETURNED TO HIS HOTEL BY THE EMBASSY AND I WOULD BE HEARING FROM HIM WITHIN A FEW HOURS. I THANKED HIM FOR HIS EFFORTS HE SAID HE WAS GOING HOME FOR DINNER. I GOT A CALL FROM [REDACTED]'S MOTHER AND IN PASSING I ASKED WHERE [REDACTED] WAS AT HOME AND SHE SAID YES. I KNEW I HAD BEEN! ## Description of the Incident

Describe in your own words how you have been victimized.

I was contacted by Veronica on the Internet who claims she found me on a site called Talentville.com of which I am a member. It is a site for actors to get work. She told me she was shooting a Beer commercial in my area. This was 1-14-2014 and the email is partially copied below.

Thanks for the reply. I'm [redacted] An Advert Manager of Heineken Beer bottle company the official sponsor of UEFA CHAMPIONS LEAGUE. When ever an advert is meant to done by Heineken, we go around in search of photos, where ever we can find, basically through Agency and Modeling site, So its from there pictures and photos are been screened and selected and it happened that yours was chosen with some other qualified candidates. Beauty isn't really the watch word for the criteria we are looking for so don't be amazed. We are going to issue out a payment of 600 to you to get the wears for the shooting such as, Beach and Glamor Wears to be use for the shooting, and also Additional Payment for the crew who are coming over to your area location for the shooting. Which means the payment for your costume and the payment for the photographer crew, hair stylist and wardrobe, would be issue all together to you, because we don't want to issue payment twice before the shooting. And you will be paid again, after the shooting. And the first shooting would take place in your local area location with the rest models in your location, and that would be 15th of next month. So if you still interested in the offer, you should get back to us with the information required below.

The scam was that I was to help pay the rental hall with money they would send me and the did (an 1800.00 check on a New Jersey Bank. I deposited the check and the next day I went to Western Union, took fifteen hundred dollars out of my account through an ATM (almost impossible) and sent the money. My bank had informed me that the check had cleared but it had not.

I have the check, all of the emails, the 39 phone calls they made to me today Monday, February 11, 2014 trying to get more money. I have the Fed Ex envelope the check was sent to me in. I contacted the Sheriff's Office here in Santa Clarita and they don't even call me back. They did send an officer to my home, Deputy [redacted] She filed report # [redacted] for the crime Theft By False Pretenses. ## Description of the Incident

Describe in your own words how you have been victimized.

This is a follow up and complaint regarding the two prior complete complaints I sent last May regarding extortion of 5,000 over Western Union by use of a fake website to sell a car listed on Autotrader. You must already know the response that people receive when a crime crosses state lines, which is the function, as I understand it, of the FBI, which makes this a pointless exercise. You give false hope that there is somehow an entity that will investigate and pursue recovery justice when you know there is there is none. I resent this. As far as I am concerned, this is just another fraudulent act -- pretending that this actually results in something happening. The thieves picked up the money in South Carolina. Columbia, SC will do nothing because I live in N.C. When I took it to my local PD, the detective said there was nothing he could do because Columbia is where the crime occurred. They can't even agree on jurisdiction or where the crime actually occurred. All I know is that I am out a large sum of money and there is currently ABSOLUTELY NO ONE that will help. I received not so much as a phone call, letter or acknowledgement after filing my initial reports on this website.

Contact Information

Are there witnesses or other victims to this crime?

this is an old scam, as I learned afterward. The internet revealed that there were numerous people who have been victimized by persons presenting themselves as persons in the military who were being deployed and needed urgently to sell a car. The means by which which they do this appears legitimate, using a real car with a real VIN #, and a website that legitimately holds money until the sale item is checked out. It was a fake website, however.

On several occasions I have applied and worked at home jobs that I found on Craig's list. This job was called "Research" Position, Secret shopper. I applied for it and received emails from [redacted] at [redacted]. The information they asked of me was my full name, address, city, state, zip code, cell phone number, or home number, present occupation, and age and sex. They then sent me emails telling me that the position available to me was feed back of the efficiency of a prominent money transfer service (Western Union/MoneyGram). I have copies of all the email contacts. I did receive two checks through FEDE and have the envelopes and sender information which is [redacted] phone number [redacted] Miami, FL 33156. The FedEx form shows priority overnight, fedex envelope, no signature required, payment bill to sender with and account that is blacked out.

I went to Chase bank with the first check on February 5th. Was informed that I could not get the funds that day but funds would be available at 8am the next morning. Got funds on the 6th and followed instructions to evaluate moneygram place of my choice by wiring $3550 to [redacted] in Cyprus (country) using the rest of the money as my salary and to pay fees such as transfer fees, gas, mileage etc. Second check arrived the same but when I went to the bank the teller immediately told me the check was fraudulent.

Description of the Incident

Describe in your own words how you have been victimized.

I purchased a 1921 Peace dollar on the [redacted] website from a user using the name [redacted] " [redacted] "I sent a money order on 1/19/2014 to [redacted] " [redacted] " at the address provided in the listing. It was [redacted] Pueblo, CO. 81003. We were in constant contact back and forth checking to see if the money order that I sent was received. He said that that he never received the money order. I sent him an email on 1/29/2014 to make sure that the address that I mailed it too was correct. He replied that that it was the wrong address. He said that the correct address was [redacted] Pueblo, CO. 81004. He said that he changed it on the [redacted] website but it evidently didn't change. I waited for the letter with the money order to be returned. It finally arrived back to me on 2/3/2014. I remailed back to him at the new address on 2/4/2014. This time I mailed it Priority with tracking. The letter was delivered on 2/7/2014 according to USPS tracking. The tracking number is 9114901230801241583833. You can check the details at www.USPS.com. I saw that the mail was delivered on 2/7/2014 to the [redacted] address. I never heard back from that he received it so I sent an email to him on Saturday 2/8/2014. He never replied back to me. I then emailed him on Sunday 2/9/2014 to see if there were any problems. Again he never replied to my email. I then went to the [redacted] website and saw that he had listed more coins. I contacted [redacted] and filed a dispute claim with them on 2/11/2014. They emailed me back warning me stating - that this seller has been cancelled for violating [redacted] policies. And if I had already made payment, to immediately contact the payment provider to request a refund. I called Western Union to stop payment but found out that the money order was cashed on Monday 2/10/2014. I also went back on [redacted] only to see that all the coins that he listed were not there anymore. I have copies of all our emails and also a copy of the money order if you need them.

Description of the Incident

Describe in your own words how you have been victimized.

Using Anastasia Date website, I met in early July, 2013 a young lady who wanted to find a husband and emigrate with visa to the US. She indicated that having 6000 in a bank account was a condition for initiating a K1 Fiancee Visa. I sent her two wire transfers on July 10 and 15, totaling 6200, from my Wells Fargo account (reported to Wells Fargo bank on Feb 11, 2014). I also started sending her occasional Western Union Money Transfers to her for various needs as they came up. All Western Union Money Transfers are on record and I reported this to their Fraud Hotline on February 10. I visited her in her home city of Kharkov, Ukraine, August 24-31, 2013. During those 7 days I bought her engagement ring and proposed to her after a week with her, family and friends. When I returned to US, I submitted a Petition for Fiancee Visa with US CIS using for I129F on October 4, 2013. The petition was approved on December 4 and forwarded to US State Dept., Bureau of Consular Affairs in Kiev, Ukraine. During this time, I was sending her monthly money transfers for English lessons and a few gifts such as iPad, camera, boots, etc. In mid-January she informed me that she had already submitted the required State Dept form DS-160 for K1 Visa to the consulate in Kiev. She claims she received an invitation for her interviews, document reviews and medical examination. At the time I did not realize she never submitted the application, therefore the visit was a hoax. This was made clear when the consulate in Kiev confirmed this in an email on February 7. At the time, she told me via email and Skype sessions that she was required to pay off an 18,000 loan on her apartment before she can receive her visa approval. That is when I contacted the consulate via email requested confirmation on Feb 6. They informed me that she had never submitted the application, nor is there any condition about paying off loans prior to receiving approval. They believed I was the victim of her scam. Their email suggested I report this to your website.

Description of the Incident

Describe in your own words how you have been victimized.

I advertised silver flatware 2K on Phoenix Craigslist. The party contacted me via blind email (craigslist) and said thhe would buy it. I agreed via my email. I then received a bogus email from Paypal, saying that I had recived 2900 on Paypal. It also said that I needed to send 900 via Western Union to release these funds and this was for shipping, and their agent would contact me for pickup.

I told them I needed their full address & phone # for Western Union and they eventually sent it. The house is a real address in the Austin area.

Then I received this email on February 12, 2014:

On Wednesday, February 12, 2014 2:30 AM, [Redacted] & [Redacted] wrote:

Dear [Redacted]

Good to hear from you. The good news is that Your application has been viewed by our customer service and approved. Through extensive background checks, your information has been reviewed and processed. It is a pleasure to inform you that you have been cleared to be one of our agents. The Mystery Evaluation Team invites you to run a survey on one prominent company in your area.

Your First Task is to evaluate a Western Union Location closest to you.

CONFIRM AND GET STARTED

Your Secret Evaluation would be:

- 1) To make a transfer of fund from a Western union location closer to you, to another Mystery shopper in another city or Country, and the funds would be picked up by our Mystery shopper at the exact location which a customer reported her funds stolen from.
- 2) You would have to record the time at which you go to the location and how many minutes it took you to get service. You would be sent a check which would cover your payment of 300 for the duty and 50 for transportation/gas as the case may be. As soon as you receive the check you would cash it at your bank, and deduct your 350 ( 300 commission and 50 transportation/gas) and use the rest of the money for the services.
- 3) Upon receiving the funds (that would come inform of Money Orders Or Check), an instruction letter will be enclosed alongside, telling you what to do.

After you must have cashed the check according to the enclosed letter you will look for a Western union location around you to carry out your task (that is wiring the funds to another agent/mystery shopper provided to you in the letter). You would have to keep a comprehensive report on every activities you carry out.

4) Your Identity should be kept confidential as the job states (secret shopper), on no account should you let the cashier/western union personnel knows you are performing a customer service evaluation as this might not give exact result. You would also provide me with the name of the cashier that attended to you along with the name of the Western union location and address. Your report should be drafted and sent to me via email immediately as well as the western union transfer details (amount sent and money transfer control number).

5) Basically, here are the details needed

- Western union location and address
- Name of the cashier
- How long it took to get services
- Smartness of the attendant
- Customer Service Professionalism
- Amount sent and money transfer control number

This is going to be done like 10-15 times in a month (depending on how fast you can be) so you'll be making about 2500- 4000 a month for yourself. There are no fees involved in this and we do not need you to pay any money to do this. This is legitimate and bears no risk. It is all as simple as I have explained to you.

I assume after reading you understand that the task is very easy and not breathe taking and I hope we can really nurture a good business relationship so that we can set up a branch for you to manage for us. As soon as our AGENTS are ready to start sending payments (within the next 24-48 hours) you'll be sent an email notification. Please acknowledge the receipt of this message.

Sincerely,

[Redacted Signature]

It looked fishy so I contacted the employment agency to see if they had sent my resume to anyone named [Redacted] or Secret Shopper. They said no.

I am not responding to this last email, however I am worried that the information I did give them will lead to identity thief of some type. Do you think so?

Thanks,

Description of the Incident

Describe in your own words how you have been victimized.

Contact was made last night February 11, 2014 6:53 pm est on my cell phone, it was in regards to a refund for technical service of $250. At that point I was told they needed a Visa Credit card account number to transfer the refund to me. The first card they said it wouldn't go through and they asked for a second card which they also claimed wouldn't go through. That's when they asked for a bank account number to transfer the refund to which wasn't provided. After I refused to give the bank account number they said that there was an issue and they would contact me today February 12, 2014 at 12:00 pm est to correct the issue that they were having with the credit card accounts. After I got off the phone I contacted both credit cards that I used while talking to them and was told that both cards had been billed for $550 for tech support. I told the credit card companies that they were fraudulent charges on my accounts and to immediately close both accounts, and I was told neither transaction went through from the credit card companies it was still needing to be approved. When they tried to get the money they tried to transfer the money from the credit cards through Western Union. I called Western Unions Fraud department and they told me that there was no transfer of money through Western Union, and I also forwarded Western Union the emails I got from them to their spoof@westerunion.com. I have not received any phone calls back from they people trying to scam me today. The man that tried to scam me had an Indian accent.

Description of the Incident

Describe in your own words how you have been victimized.

On Monday, February 10, 2014 I received a telephone call from [redacted] informing me that I had won<sup>b6</sup> an award of 500,000. I was told I could not tell anyone anything about the award until I received the<sup>b7c</sup> payment. I was required to submit 2,000 because our government would not allow the company to pay for the process of remitting the proceeds. So I withdrew 2,000 from my savings account at West America Bank and went to Rite Aid Drug Store on Sebastopol Road in Santa Rosa, California to use their Western Union service to send the money to a woman in Manila. Later I called [redacted] and left a message at [redacted] returned my call and asked for a total of 4,500 more. I told him I didn't have any additional funds so I would have to check with family to see if I could raise some cash. I went to a friend to ask for 2,000. He told me I had been scammed. We went to the local Santa Rosa Police Department and they gave me the email address to report this information.

Description of the Incident

Describe in your own words how you have been victimized.

Tuesday, Feb. 11th, 12:30 p.m. I'm at home. Someone calls my home phone [redacted] Me: "Hello". Man: "Hi, Gramma". Me: "Peter! What's up?". Man: Well, I've got myself in a pickle and need your help. A friend of mine won a mystery trip for two. He was on the outs with his girlfriend, so he asked me to go with him. I am in Lima, Peru. We've had a great time, snorkeling: I have lots of pictures to show you. But my problem is that we went to the airport to come home and my friend was found with 3 1/2 ounces of marijuana in his luggage. I knew nothing about this. Now I'm at the American Embassy and they've assigned a pro bono lawyer to help me. The court appearance is in 2 hours. My airline ticket is still good and I'll still be able to get home with it. I need 1800 wired to me immediately. Mr. [redacted] the officer, is going to get on the phone now and tell you where you should go to wire the money. Oh, and can we keep this just between us for now?" Me: "Okay". Man#2 (with similar but not same voice as first man): "Hello, Mrs. [redacted]". Me: "Yes?". Man2: "Do you have a right pharmacy in your neighborhood?". Me: "no". Man2: "What grocery stores do you have?". Me: "Cub, Rainbow, Byerlys, Kowalskis". Man2: Ummm. Let me find a Western Union location for you. You should go to a pharmacy or grocery store with a Western Union counter because they have personal money transfer services. [Meanwhile, I run upstairs to my computer and start looking for a western Union location near my house. I find one on 154th and Cedar and it's a regular location - not in a grocery store or pharmacy] Me: "I found a location on 154th and Cedar". Man 2: "No, I found one at a Market on Blackhawk Rd". Me: "Okay, that's close. I'll go there". Man2: "Now when you get there, don't say anything about the drugs and try not to give them extra information, because, after 9/11, they'll slow down the transaction if they know about this. I'll need the ten digit transaction number when you call me back and my phone number is [redacted] Ask for extension 211, Mr. [redacted] [I have a friend coming to pick me up so we can go to a quilt store. She arrives just as I need to get to the bank, so she is driving all this time.] I make it to the bank to withdraw 2000 from my checking account (there will be a service charge at Western Union). I arrive at the Hildalgo Market on Blackhawk Rd. and Diffley in Eagan. The clerk at the market is willing to help me with the Western Union transaction. She asks me if this is for family. I say, yes. She and her partner employee talk in Spanish and she asks me something about "flawed"? which I don't understand and dismiss. It takes two times to get the transaction correct due to a misspelling of my son's last name. The transaction is done. I call Mr. [redacted] back at [redacted] extension 211 and tell him that the transaction is done and give him the 10 digit tx. # [My friend and I head down the road to our planned shop. About 10 minutes later, Mr. [redacted] calls and says the transaction didn't go through and I have to go back to the market and "stand on the clerk" until she gets it right and done, and then to call him. Back we go to the market. The clerk tries again and then calls customer service of Western Union. In Spanish, she spends several minutes talking to this customer service man, then hands the phone to me. This c.s. man asks me who I'm sending the money to and I say "my son". C.S.man: "Why does he have a different name?". Me: "Because I'm divorced and remarried". C.S.Man: "What is your son doing in Peru?". Me: "He's a tourist". C.S.man: "Why are you sending him money?". Me: "Because he ran out of money". C.S.man: "Didn't he take enough money with him on this trip?". Me: "No". [I'm still on the defensive up to this point and want to just get this transaction going to help my son] C.S.Man: "This is a risky transaction. Where does you son live?". Me: "California". C.S.Man: "When was the last time you saw him?". Me: "At Christmas". C.S.Man: "Do you have your son's phone number?". Me: "Yes". C.S.Man: "Call him". [I use my cellphone for the other ear and call my son.] Son, Peter: "Hello". Me: "WHERE ARE YOU?". Peter: "I'm at work!". Me: "WHERE?". Peter: "In San Diego". .....the light comes on!.... Back to the Customer Service man, Me: "Okay. They got me.". C.S.Man: "Yes. You will need this number which you should give to the clerk so you can get your money back: [redacted]".

[I hand this number to the clerk and she fills out the forms for a refund. A few signatures later and I have my money back." I didn't call Mr. [redacted] back, however, he called me back. The phone number on my cellphone comes up Unknown and it was at 3:28 p.m. yesterday] Man: "Did you get the transaction fixed". Me: expletives ##@@@ ?!

I tumbled hard to this fraud because the first voice on the phone was definitely my son's. Somehow, this crook got my son's voice. The C.S.man told me to tell my son to change the passwords on his emails. I took the hint and changed my passwords too.

Description of the Incident

Describe in your own words how you have been victimized.

[redacted] of Arvent Lending Solution replied to my online request for an internet loan telling me that a private lender approved my loan application for 5000 and that all I had to do was send a deposit of 4 months' payments in advance of their forwarding the loan funds to me and that they would refund the amount of the wire transfer fees to me as well. Their instructions were to send a wire transfer to [redacted] [redacted] - their licensed representative in Barrie, Ontario, Canada. This I did on December 24, 2013 -MTCN 272-511-3415. This number is not now recognized by Western Union when I tried to track the number today. Their next step was to demand that I pay another 1196 for insurance out of my loan amount out of the loan proceeds. I refused to do this - the cost pretty much outweighed the benefits at this point. I demanded a refund which I was told I could do and [redacted] from Arvent told me that he had initiated the refund process and that it would take ten business days for me to receive my refund because their refund department only worked on Saturdays. Since then I have been phoning the company two to three times per week and they have always sent my call to voice mail. Yesterday and the day before I sent faxes to the fax number listed in the loan documents. Today I spoke to [redacted] - he said he would check into it and then hung up on me. I had contacted the RCMP in Stonewall, Manitoba at the end of December and they said they looked legit. I can't find their web site on the Internet anymore and they refuse to speak to me about my refund they never provided any consideration on their part to justify their keeping my money to make it a binding contract.

[redacted] the Bronzeville Childrens Museum. I got this email this morning supposedly from her:

I really hope you get this fast. I could not inform anyone about our trip, because it was impromptu. we had to be in Philippines for a Tour..The program was successful, but our journey has turned sour. we misplaced our wallet and cell phone on our way back to the hotel we lodged in after we went for sight seeing. The wallet contains all the valuables we have. Now, our passport is in custody of the hotel management pending when we make payment.

I am sorry if i am inconveniencing you, but i have only very few people to turn to now. i will be indeed very grateful if i can get a short term loan from you ( 2,450). this will enable me sort our hotel bills and get my sorry self back home. I will really appreciate whatever you can afford in assisting me with. I promise to refund it in full as soon as I return. let me know if you can be of any assistance. Please, let me know soonest.

Thanks so much

I knew it was a scam and informed her by phone. her email address [redacted] was shut down at that point

I replied to the email for more instructions and got this:

RE CAP OF RENTAL FOR [REDACTED] 92116

b7c

At the end of August 2013 I came upon an advertisement in Backpage.com for a home rental and applied for the rental. The owner as presented was [REDACTED] and they were renting the Home out during their religious work in Nigeria with an internet address of [REDACTED]. The home was applied for and they decided to rent the home to me and the pricing was established and payments were made. Attached copy of payments made. The payments were made and in this time of first part of September 2013 the rental agreement was done and the papers enclosed were completed and the keys and other papers covering the utilities were to be sent.

Then they had a problem and needed additional money for the utilities and to send the keys again, which with money sent for this nothing happened and nothing was sent.

Mr. [REDACTED] promised to send on his word as man of the church with additional money being sent and monies were sent to the resident pastor for pick up. This was done expecting Mr. [REDACTED] to fulfill his word, but the result was the same and nothing was done.

At this point I had checked and drove by the house to find someone living there, and I questioned Mr. [REDACTED] and told me it was his wife's brother and he would move out. Also at this time I had looked the house up on the internet and the site informed me that the house had been sold and sale by Coldwell Banker, agent [REDACTED] had closed the sale of the property on August 20, 2013, which was prior to the date of the for rent ad in Back page, and prior to the September rental of the property by Mr. [REDACTED].

Which at this time I brought this up to Mr. [REDACTED] and was told the property was still owned by him. His brother in law [REDACTED] was not the person in the house and the people residing in the house, and there number is [REDACTED].

Mr. [REDACTED] claims the property is still his and had given a number for his lawyer [REDACTED] [REDACTED] which was no good. At this point I asked for the return of my money and he has avoided that and keeps asking for more. He was supposed to be returning to US in January, but has not so far.

Mr. [REDACTED] has two numbers and he can be reached at [REDACTED] I also have on my cell phone all the texts between him and me.

Since he has failed to abide by the contract and did not perform, he is required to return the money sent for a true rental, but since the rental was done under fraudulent terms and conditions, I feel that it is considered a criminal act.

My name is [REDACTED] and this is a recap of events relating to the attempted rental of [REDACTED] property.

Description of the Incident

Describe in your own words how you have been victimized.

This outfit presents itself as a "secret shopper" service wherein it's recruits would make purchases from retail stores (like WalMart) and then send a report about their "shopping experience" -- especially regarding courtesy and customer service, but also including price, variety of products offered etc. because WalMart wants to know how they're doing in these areas.

The new recruit who is interested in becoming one of these undercover secret shoppers would then go out on assignment to do the "shopping" and then be reimbursed for his purchases and get paid well for them.

The first such "service" I was solicited to perform (i.e., crime I was solicited to commit) was to pick up some transferred funds from a Western Union office (preferably one which has another accomplice working the desk). I have an email print out from the alleged Mr. [REDACTED] outlining the scam and offering me a chance to become an agent at the branch office that will be opening near me soon [or at least until they get caught]. I would like to forward that email to you, but I don't have an email address to forward it to.

I was a victim of one of these help-I-am-a-prisoner-in Spain scams once before. The scammers hacked my email account and then asked my friends to send them (posing as me) and send the money to the hacked email address so I could afford to pay my hotel bill in Spain (where the electricity had gone out) and buy airline tickets home for me and my family. I (that is, the bag man) would then go to a Western Union office to pick up the money. My friends were either too smart (or perhaps they didn't care enough) to be taken in by this scam. b6 b7c

I didn't know what was going on at the time, but several of them told me about it and I had some explaining to do -- especially to those who had been solicited in the Viagra-from-Canada scam, and so I changed my password again. The FBI told me these scams are a dime a dozen and aren't worth the time it takes to investigate them. No doubt that's true, but this one is going down NOW in real time and the investigation can zero in on the scammer.

Are you interested? I need an email or physical address to forward [REDACTED]'s solicitation to commit a crime letter to, however.

Description of the Incident

Describe in your own words how you have been victimized.

I was contacted by [redacted] of Larry Outlets by e-mail requesting that I ship him 160 electric plant pollinators to his store in Australia.

He wants to forward the funds to me on a credit card for the product ( 3219.00), shipping cost Air Freight 2020.00 plus taxes and custom fees.

He wants for me to pay all of the above expenses after I receive the funds from him, stating it is safer with this procedure. He does not seem to care about the cost of shipping, just needs the product fast.

He wants the product shipped through his freight forwarder and does not want a competitive bid. He wants me to contact Popular Shipping not him ([redacted]);

I contacted the shopping center where is outlet is located and got the following response;

Dear [redacted]

b6
b7C

Thank you for your email.

As far as we are aware, Larry Outlet is a scam. We were contacted by a company in America who had also been contacted by a company calling themselves Larry Outlet but no business of this name exists at Elizabeth Shopping Centre. We also received a few customer enquiries last year asking after Larry Outlet so this has been going on for a while.

We think this is one of those "third party shipper" scams. They pay their own shipping costs with a fake cashier's check including some exorbitantly high shipping charges. Then you (the victim) pays the shipper via Western Union money transfer which is irreversible.

Then your bank dings you for the bad check a week or two later. Meanwhile, the shipper and the scammer (same person) pockets the money.

The company from America reported it to the FBI due to the high risk nature of their product. We will be reporting it also to the Police today.

Thanks again for your email and bringing this to our attention.

Kind regards,

Description of the Incident

Describe in your own words how you have been victimized.

Late January, 2014, I responded via email to an advertisement in our local newspaper in Horseshoe Bay for a personal assistant. I was soon contacted by [REDACTED] via return email stating the nature of the job (shopping, running errands, etc) and confirming the payment of 310.00 per work. After a number of emails I was notified that I was hired and my first assignment would arrive by USPS on 2/13/14. A Moneygram in the amount of 1,830.00 was enclosed. I was to deposit the check into my bank account and then withdraw the funds minus 10 and the cost to send the balance vis Western Union and then notify Ms [REDACTED] that the "assignment" had been completed. b6 b7c

Upon receipt of the Moneygram, and after careful inspection I took the Moneygram to a nearby bank and asked them to verify the validity of the instrument. The teller called to verify the Moneygram "Official Check" drawn on First Interstate Bank, Billings Montana, through Moneygram Payment Systems, Inc., also in Billings Montana. The teller was advised that the Moneygram check number was valid, but the date and amount of the check did not match their records. Upon closer and more careful scrutiny I determined that the Moneygram also had "unusual sequences" in the routing and check # at the bottom of the "Official Check". Thus we determined that the check was bogus, but a good fraud. All the markings were on the check, therefore making it look quite official and legitimate. I called the FBI in Dallas and was routed to Washington DC and then advised that I should file this complaint with this entity.

PLEASE NOTE - I am still in contact via text message and email with the person that contacted me about the personal assistant job.

While I did not loose any money or have any amounts charged back through my bank account, I was very close to depositing the check into a separate account of mine and waiting to see if it would clear.

If I might assist in trying to stop this ring that Ms [REDACTED] is involved in I would be happy to do so.

My intent was to find a part time job, not to be involved in a scam, which unfortunately is far too rampant these days. b6 b7c

The person I am communicating with via email doesn't know that I know the check are bogus.

None, other than the teller at the bank I used to determine the validity of the moneygram. Also, the man at the newspaper that confirmed he did take the advertisement placed by [REDACTED] and also that she used a credit card to place the ad. I also discussed this issue with my banker in Marble Falls, Texas. b6 b7c

I am informing you because I am sure he calls many people.

He tries monthly always with a different name. Last month it was David. It sounded really good but I knew he was trying to scam me. This month I tried to get enough information to take him down. This is a poor state. He needs to be stopped.

He offers amazing amounts of money and some times even a car. All I had to do was send him 300.00 -with the receipt from Western Union; he would give me a golden seal to affix upon the special post card I was to receive send it and I would receive 5 Million dollars. Seriously how many people has he ripped off?

Description of the Incident

Describe in your own words how you have been victimized.

Last July a Dell Computer tech called to tell me my computer was at risk.

They referred me to a business in Californian for help.

The business Home PC Protector for 149 worked on computer through remote access.

Latter I asked Dell about this problem and they said they did not call me.

I decided this was fraudulent acquisition of business.

On 2/12/14 this same business said they will refund the 149 because they are shutting down.

They tried to credit my Visa but they said it did not work.

Through remote access to my PC they transferred 600 to my Paypal account - Trans

ID [REDACTED] The remote access program was Teamviewer.

They showed me the 600 placed in my Pay Pal account. When the remote access ended I could not see the 600.

They said the money would show up in my checking account within 24 hours.

I was told to send back 400 because they send me too much money.

They directed me to sent it to Clearwater Beach Florida via Western Union which I did.

Recipient: [REDACTED] tracking no. [REDACTED]

They had me delete all history from my cell phone in order to receive a refund code from them.

I called Pay Pal and they said no money was sent to my account. The transaction ID was not valid.

I called Western Union and had them stop the wire transfer before [REDACTED] picked up the money.

I got my money back. They did try to pick it up & they called me and said [REDACTED] could not receive it.

They charged my Visa for 160 but Visa said I am not liable.

It looks like a legit business but it is not. They are cleaver having me delete cell phone records.

My email [REDACTED]

The next day I received some 20 phones calls I did not answer & phone number unavailable.

To my surprise I found out that [REDACTED] has a face book account & she does live in Clear Water Beach Florida.

The 600 never was transferred to my checking account from Pal Pal.

Both Western Union and US Bank Card made fraud reports.

Description of the Incident

Describe in your own words how you have been victimized.

A person of unknown identity used my email address to request money (2,3,500) from my contacts (pretexting an emergency). The money was to be sent on an account in my name through Western Union in Bamako, Mali.

In addition, the person blocked all access to my email account, including backup/ emergency access codes. As a result, I am unable to advise my contacts of the fraud.

I know that some of my contacts responded to the email, but am unaware of any money having been transferred at this time.

Supplemental Information

----- 02/14/2014 09:29:15 -----

I wanted to let you know that the individual seems to be very well informed and organized. In particular, he managed to get individual information on us that seems disturbing (including the fact that my niece was adopted in Vietnam, the surnames of my daughters etc.). Below is the relevant email exchange with my step-sister (allegedly with me).

Many thanks for your help with this.

Description of the Incident

Describe in your own words how you have been victimized.

A Captain Striker called on June 20, 2013 to say our grandson was involved in an altercation with a citizen of the Dominican Republic. He said he was attached to the US/ Dominican Republic embassy(?). The complaintent would not file charges if we sent 1700.00 via wire transfer by Western Union to [REDACTED] [REDACTED] Santiago Dominican Republic. I did this.

b6
b7c

Then I was told I needed to wire 3600.00 in two separate 1800.00 amounts thru two different wire transfer services to an international bondsman [REDACTED] Santiago Dom Republic. I also did this. Finally the next morning I called my grandson on his cell phone to find out it was just a scam. Capt Striker called agin to get money for thee lawyer. By then I knew it was a scam and said some unkind things.

Description of the Incident

Describe in your own words how you have been victimized.

Listed a GEProfile microwave convection oven on Craigslist for sale 975 A [redacted] responded he was interested and would send me a certified check. Several days later I received a check for 2890 in a priority envelope. No info what it was for. I contacted LuLu Press, company check was from, asking info about check. I left a message on LuLu Presse's answering machine, they have not responded. I also contacted PNC Bank and requested info about check funds. They would not give me info on acct holder but gave me a confirmation phone # I could call to verify funds were available from that acct. I did and the machine said the funds were available.

I realized it was [redacted] who had sent the check when on one of his emails it referenced LuLu Press. " [redacted] " was very persistent and said the shippers were transporting other things for him and they would not be able to pick up the oven until the shipping had been paid. He gave me directions on how to go to Western Union to wire the money. I did the MTCN number was [redacted] It was to go to the shipper [redacted] Toledo, Alabama. 35058. I was to send it quick pay so the shipper could register the shipment and then pick up the oven. Once I had sent the money the next morning he said the shippers would be down by 5pm but they needed the rest of the funds. It told him I could not go out again because of the weather and by that time my bank was questioning the check. I reported this to the NYS attorney generals office. Homeland Security who told me to contact IC3.org. I have also filed a Police report with the NYS Police.

Description of the Incident

Describe in your own words how you have been victimized.

I met [redacted] on line July 2012 on Match.com, he said he lived in Murrieta, Ca but had excepted a job in South Africa, specifically in Capetown, South Africa, we became acquainted and became friends at first and fell in love. After months gone by he started asking for monies because their were several incidents that came up, of course I believe and trusted him at that time with my life. I have many transaction numbers for Western Union and Money Grams, also Wire number too numerous but I can supply you with them. I also have two that were sent to me for deposit and later I was suppose to wire to them. I have emails and now I have been contacted by an attorney stating that [redacted] has died and left me over One Million dollars but they want me to send 4,500.00 in to go to the court of justice before they will deposited in my u.s. accout. Because of some of the funds which deposited and wired to them bounced my account, which I have for over 40 yrs was closed and I was put on cheques systems an my account closed and I cannot get an account, I was a victim and I need to know how I can clear my name, and if I can help in any way I will. I received several checks in the mail(us mail)and FedEx which I have everything I ever did and received. I understand you need dates and numbers which I do have but there so many and I need a little time to get all of them together. I just wanted to report this to FBI and once I hear from you I will continue to gather all you will need. I did file a police report with Hemet Police but never heard from them, the report was concerning 2 checks deposit in U.S. Bank but their was no lost the the bank other than they closed my account their too. The first account that was closed was at Bank of America. I am an Ex banker, retiree, I always waited for the checks to clear before wiring the money out, not all the checks that they sent me were bad, so I had no suspicion their was fraud happening? I hope you can help me to clear my status as I am a victim of fraud here.

Thank You

Description of the Incident

Describe in your own words how you have been victimized.

On 2/11/14 a man identified himself as my son, Bill, saying he was in Mexico City with a friend who had won a free trip for two people. He then made me promise to keep everything he was about to tell me a secret. He and his friend and two other strangers (men) that they given a ride had been pulled over by the police for a traffic violation. All were arrested because a loaded pistol and drugs were found on the strangers. My son and his friend passed the drug tests, but the police took his cell phone. They were at the American Embassy and needed money. I wired 1495.00 (tracking: [redacted]) on 2/11/14 and 1395.00 (tracking: [redacted]) on 2/12/14 to obtain his release and court fees. Each time I called a "SGT. [redacted] at the American Embassy" to give him the tracking numbers. My son did not call me on 2/13/14 as I was told he would do. I called him. He never went to Mexico City!!! It was all a SCAM!!
